

Free Screening “Dark Money”

“DARK MONEY” examines the influence of untraceable corporate money on our elections and elected officials. The film follows an intrepid Montana journalist as he works to expose the impact of the US Supreme Court’s Citizens United decision. Directed/produced by Kimberly Reed (PRODIGAL SONS) and produced by Katy Chevigny (E-TEAM).

Screening followed by audience Q&A with film subject, Ann Ravel, former Chair of the Federal Election Commission.

Saturday
September 22
10 am

Saratoga Library
Community Room
13650 Saratoga Ave.
Saratoga

Open to the Public
Free Parking

SPONSORED BY

League of Women Voters
Southwest Santa Clara Valley

Saratoga Public Library

Questions: lww.swscv@gmail.com